A Letter From Nathan Osmond

Dear Reader,

Thank you so much for requesting a copy of my electronic press kit (EPK). I hope to have the privilege of performing for you and your organization in the near future! I appreciate your consideration and guarantee you my very best.

Inside this kit you will get to know me better as both a singer/songwriter as well as an entertainer. With over 25 years in show business, you can rest assured that working with me will be simple, professional and will leave your audiences with an unforgettable experience.

This has been a very exciting year for me so far with my hit single, "SWEET" hitting #1 on the independent country charts. It stayed there for two weeks and even hit #8 on the major country charts. Pretty World Records will be releasing my new single this Fall with a music video as well as a full album release. It will also include a bonus track which I just recorded in Nashville with Country legend and Opry star, Jack Greene. I also produced and headlined this year in what was recently voted the #1 family show in Waikiki; "Pacific Swing Hawaii." It's been a fun ride so far!

For questions regarding availability, performance rates, etc, please feel free to contact my amazing booking agent who will get you all the information you will need. (Located on the last page of this EPK.) We will do all in our power to work within your budget and can even tailor my performances to meet your individual needs.

Thank you again for your time and I look forward to meeting you in person in the near future!

All the best,

Biography

Nathan Osmond is more than just "A Little Bit Country!" His new single, "SWEET" just hit #1 on the Independent Country charts and stayed there for two weeks. He is currently at #8 on the major Country charts. During this year's CMA Music Fest, Nathan played the "Midnight Jambo-ree" at the historic Texas Troubadour Theater in Nashville, TN. His guitar-driven, cutting-edge, true-to-Country-roots sound is winning the attention of Country fans the world over.

This singer-songwriter is no stranger to the business. Nearly his entire life has been dedicated to writing and performing music. Raised around television and recording studios, Nathan knew at an early age that music was his destiny. He began writing his latest project in Nashville with Dean Sams, the keyboard-player and founding-member of the hit Country group, Lonestar. Sams immediately heard Nathan's musical gifts and took him under his wing to produce four sides on his album. Nathan then travelled to Muscle Shoals, AL to meet up with hit-songwriter/producer, Gary Baker ("I Swear", "I'm Already There", etc.) to finish the album. He is signed on Pretty World Records and has plans to release his next single this August.

"America and Country music fans are about to see a whole new chapter in the Osmond legacy."
- Country Music Association (CMA)

Nathan was voted by Country fans as "Best Local Country Artist" this year in Utah and received the Eagle Country Award. He's opened for Carrie Underwood, Patty Loveless, Collin Raye and many others in the business. Whether it's playing to a sold-out stadium or even a local County fair, Nathan always delivers a high-energy, crowd-pleasing performance that always leaves his audiences wanting more. He is a member of CMA and just recorded a new duet with Country legend and Opry star, Jack Greene, which will be released later this year.

Pretty World Records will be releasing Osmond's first solo-debut album this September which will feature the hit-single, "SWEET". The label plans to shoot a new music video Summer of 2011.

"I've spent two years putting this new album together and I truly feel that it represents who I am musically," said Osmond. He co-wrote on this album and also included the talents of several other hit-songwriters such as Brett James ("Jesus Take The Wheel", Cowboy Casanova"), Jim Collins ("The Good Stuff", "Everybody Wants To Go To Heaven"), Jerry Foster ("Here Comes The Hurt Again") Walt Aldridge ("I Loved Her First", "I Sure Can Smell The Rain") and others.

Nathan recently returned from a five-month run in Hawaii where he both produced and starred in what was voted "The #1 family show in Waikiki," Pacific Swing Hawaii, at the iconic Royal Hawaiian.

"I expect great things from Nathan's recording career."

- Donald J. Trump

"He is genuine and a passionate artist." - Great American Country (GAC)

"One of my favorite things to do is getting to meet the fans before or after the shows," said Osmond. "I don't care who you are, if you don't take the time out to meet your fans, you won't be around long in this business!" Nathan Osmond is known for giving his fans his time and is very active in responding to their questions through his Facebook and Twitter pages. He even has a street team called, "The O-Zone" whose members are actively spreading his music around the globe. Nathan said, "I've been so blessed to have the most loyal and supportive fans any artist could ask for. I love you ALL!!!"

On top of his Country career, Nathan has toured on the North American tour of the hit musical, "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" He was even cast in the lead role of the National tour of, "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown." He's toured to over 15 countries, singing in many of their languages, and had 3 songs in the top 40 in the U.K. with his brothers (The Osmonds 2nd Generation). He has appeared in a number of films over the past two years and has plans to continue acting. Nathan is also actively booked as a motivational speaker and brings with him a very inspiring message for any organization. He is actively involved with Children's Miracle Network (a foundation started by his grandmother), Autism Speaks and Operation Smile. He believes in giving back.

"I hope to be more than just another Country singer," said Osmond, "I hope to create a legacy of solid entertainment. I hope to be a positive role model, to both young and old alike, proving that anything in life is possible, so long as you have a dream and are willing to put into action what it takes to achieve that dream." He continued by saying, "I hope to continue writing songs that are meaningful and anchor to the hearts of the listener."

Nathan stresses the importance of family in achieving success. "I have been blessed with the greatest, most patient and supportive wife on earth. She is the inspiration for a lot of my songs." Nathan recently recorded a Jerry Foster cut titled, "Every Man Needs A Rock," which will be featured as a bonus song on his next album. He dedicates it to his sweetheart, Sarah. "I'm the proud father of three little boys (Zachary, Corbin and Samuel)." He continues saying, "If I never win a CMA Award or a Grammy, so long as my kids think I'm a cool dad, then I consider myself a true success." Nathan has major plans to tour this year and hopes to be able to meet as many of his fans as possible.

“He has a very nice voice.”

- Jimmy Kimmel

“Having received the title of ‘The Gentleman of Country Music’ over 43 years ago, I am excited at the thought of Nathan carrying that title into the next generation.”

- Jack Greene

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write this letter of support and praise for Nathan Osmond. I have been professionally associated with Nathan for over 10 years in my capacity as CEO of Tuacahn Center for the Arts.

Tuacahn is one of the largest non-profit arts and educational organizations in Utah, operating on an annual budget of over eight million dollars. Tuacahn presents professional Broadway musicals, professional concerts and other events in a 2000-seat state-of-the-art Amphitheatre and is the home of Tuacahn High School for the Performing Arts.

Nathan performed professionally in Tuacahn’s Broadway production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, and more recently presented a Christmas concert headlining our annual Christmas in the Canyon with Live Nativity.

The Nathan Osmond Christmas Concert at the Tuacahn Amphitheatre was a hit with our patrons. Nathan has a natural way of connecting with the audience. His smooth voice, sense of humor and innate ability to seamlessly tie things together musically, while involving other performers, is unique and engaging.

Nathan really gives himself to the audience with energy and generosity. A genuine enthusiasm and a love for people, coupled with that professional Osmond musicality, is what makes Nathan’s performance so outstanding.

I highly recommend Nathan Osmond as a singer, performer and entertainer.

Sincerely,

Kevin M. Smith
